Travel Restrictions On East Germans Tightened by Reds

BERLIN (AP)—The East German Communists cut down on already limited travel by their own citizens to Western Germany today. It was their most vigorous interference with traffic between the two Germanys since Berlin's new crisis began.

The latest Berlin trouble was generated Sunday by barricades erected against East Berliners going into West Berlin and against West Berliners going east unless they get special permits. Today the clampdown was extended beyond Berlin to the borders between East and West Germany.

West German guards all along the border said the arrival of East Germans at crossing points practically stopped.

Freight trains and trucks were permitted to travel in both directions as before, and Westerners going into East Germany were allowed through as long as their papers were in order.

But East Germans on west-bound trains were ordered off at the West German border, even though they had visas and permits issued by Communist authorities.

At Helmstedt, chief rail and highway crossing near the middle of the 935-mile border, no East German cars were allowed through after midmorning. No East Germans were on trains crossing the Bavarian border.

The East German government made no announcement concerning the situation. But it threatened Tuesday to put on another blockade like that in 1948-49 if West Germany cuts off East German trade in reprisal for the travel restrictions in Berlin.

Col. Andrei I. Solovyev, commander of Soviet troops in Berlin, has taken no notice of the protest of the three Western commanders Tuesday against the new Iron Curtain across the city.

But he replied to an earlier protest against harassment of East Berlin workers commuting to West Berlin, and told the Western commanders they "cannot be taken seriously."

The Western protest Tuesday said the barricades have turned the city into an armed camp in flagrant violation of Soviet agreements to maintain Berlin as a four-power city.

The Soviet note came as indignation swept West Berlin because of Allied opposition to drastic action against Communist closure of the divided city's border.

The commander of the small Soviet garrison left in East Berlin

'Windmill' Satellite Put In Space

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A new "windmill" scientific payload raced through the vastness of space today, gathering data on the relation between magnetic fields and radiation streaming from the sun.

Named Explorer XII, the package is expected to tell scientists more clearly than ever before how solar radiation influences conditions on earth and how great a hazard it is to manned space travel.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration was reluctant today to label the space messenger a satellite, but there was every indication it was in successful orbit after its launching from this rocket center Tuesday night.

"Yes, I think we have an orbit," reported Dr. John W. Townsend of NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center.

But because an extremely elliptical orbit was sought, Townsend said it may be as long as 62 hours after launch before it can be definitely confirmed.

Explorer XII was aimed for a wide-swinging course designed to take it as far out as 54,000 miles from earth and bring it back to within 170 miles at the low point. Each pass around the world would take 31 hours, compared to a normal satellite circuit of about two hours.

With four large paddle wheels extending from its body and a 32-inch rod protruding from the top, the payload resembles the spinning vanes of a windmill.

The paddle wheels were covered with solar cells to capture energy from the sun. Atop the

11 Others Formed In County

Two New Precincts Established In City

The County Election Board at East Liverpool announced Tuesday the establishment of 13 new precincts in Columbiana County, including two in Salem.

The Salem precincts affected are Precinct D in the First Ward and Precinct D in the Fourth. Precincts split in other area communities are A and E in Columbiana and 4-H in East Palestine. The township precincts affected are Butler North, Perry East and Hanover North.

The rest are in the southern part of the county.

The board also revised boundary lines in Northwest A. in Lisbon and Unity Precinct in Unity Twp.

The establishment of the new precincts boosts the county total from 152 to 165, Frank O'Hanlon, Election Board clerk, said.

The decision to create the new polling places were made early this year by the board as a result of top-heavy votes cast in those areas in the November general election.

Meanwhile, the board explained today that the petition of Melvin H. Elsner, who was seeking a trustee post in Perry Township, was rejected because it lacked 44 signatures instead of one as reported in Tuesday's News.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, board clerk, explained Elsner needed 68 signatures to make his petition valid. He secured 99, but 75 were eliminated by the board because Elsner violated a provision of law requiring candidates to swear to and date the declaration of candidacy before circulating a petition.

Eliminations of the early signatures left Elsner with only 24 valid signatures, 44 short of the required 68.

The board is continuing a study today of the lone proposal it has received to print ballots for the Nov. 7 general election.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said the board tabled the Dodge Publishing Co.'s bid asking $10,226.57 for further study when it met Monday night to rule on non-partisan petitions. The Salem firm's bid included the printing of regular ballots, along with those needed for special questions and issues in cities, townships, villages and school districts.

The board said Smith stopped to turn right into a private drive when Ackerman, who was behind him, was unable to get stopped and struck the East Liverpool man's auto from the rear.

Ackerman was cited for reckless operation.

Greasel did not require treatment but his 1960 model car was damaged extensively.

Cars operated by Hugh L. Smith, 25, of RD 1, East Liverpool, and Cyril Ackerman, 41, of Lake Milton, collided on Rt. 30, about three miles south of Lisbon, at 4:25 p.m. Tuesday.

The patrol said Smith stopped to turn right into a private drive when Ackerman, who was behind him, was unable to get stopped and struck the East Liverpool man's auto from the rear.

JFK Against Resumption Of Nuclear Testing

President's Position Set Regardless Of Russian Demands

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy is reported to have decided against any resumption of nuclear testing this year, regardless of whether the Russians demonstrate at Geneva they want no foolproof agreement.

The President's position, as outlined to congressional leaders, is that the United States should do nothing to prejudice the case it expects to make in the United Nations that the West is ready to accept a self-enforcing ban while the Russians insist on an inspection veto.

Kennedy is sending his chief negotiator, Arthur H. Dean, back to Geneva next week to find out if the Soviet Union is still sticking to its trioka demand for unanimous three-power inspection control. If they are, he said, Dean will come home quickly.

There is little, if any, hope within the administration that Moscow will change its position. Accordingly, the plan is to dramatize this last-chance rejection when the U.S. General Assembly meets in September.

The U.N. timetable usually keeps it in session until December. Kennedy is represented as reluctant to announce any resumption of tests while the international organization remains in session.

There is the additional factor in this reported decision that it

Jr. Baseball Leagues Plan City Canvass

The Salem Junior Baseball Leagues' house to house canvass for money to help defray the costs of conducting the program here will be held Friday, beginning at 5 p.m., John Herman, Jr., president, announced today.

All the boys taking part in the canvass are asked to wear their uniforms. A special team and individual awards will be given the boy or boys who collect the most money.

All Class H, G and F players are asked to report to the American Legion Home at 4:45 p.m. Friday. Managers are requested to secure drivers to take the players to the residential areas.

The boys will not solicit on the downtown streets.

A total of 43 teams, ranging in age from six to 19, took part in this year's program. About 70 boys are currently attending classes in the morning league and baseball clinic, which will continue until the end of this month.

Funds are needed to help pay off the debt incurred when the Leagues built a new diamond at Copacica Field on the Depot Rd., just south of Salem. The new diamond will accommodate Classes A, D and E games. The Leagues also spent money to rebuild three Class H diamonds.

Funds received from the sponsors and donations from association membership are not enough to cover the yearly expenses, Herman said. This year's program will cost approximately $6,700. The Salem Junior Baseball Leagues

County Board Merges Two School Districts

LISBON — The Columbiana County Board of Education Tuesday night created a new county school district by combining the Southern Local system which consisted of Wayne, No. 16, Highlandtown and Salineville, schools with Franklin Local, which had been a separate eight-year district.

The board also created a new board of education for the new district. Members are J. B. Ferguson and Martin Adams of the Salineville district, John Ewing of Wayne, Jack Stewart of No. 16 and Jack Dangelo of Franklin.

The board voted to combine the systems on the recommendation of Ohio University following a survey authorized by the Ohio Board of Education. The vote of county board members for the merger of the two districts was unanimous.

Fred Johnson of Summitville was the only visitor present at last night's meeting, representing eight members of four school boards, two each from Franklin, East, Fox and Augusta. The latter three schools are in Carroll County.

He proposed that the state conduct a new survey to ascertain if Franklin's merger with the Carroll County schools would not be more favorable than its union with Southern Local.

He stated the Ohio University recommendation was based only on its study of Columbiana County school units and did not take into consideration a possible merger of Franklin with Carroll County schools.

He said Franklin and the Carroll County schools would be merged into a new district.

The driver of the car which struck Semko, John Pethel, 57, of Myrtle Ave., Lake Milton, was charged with hit-skip and driving while intoxicated. He was picked up in a bar after the accident by the State Highway Patrol.

The patrol said Semko was driving his motorcycle east on Rt. 18 in Lake Milton when Pethel, headed north on Rt. 534, cut across a gas station lot and struck the youth, knocking him off the side of the road.

Firemen's Fair Set At Washingtonville
The Washingtonville Fire Department will hold its seventh annual fair Thursday, Friday and Saturday on the Washingtonville School grounds.

Highlight of the event will be a firemen's parade Thursday at 7 p.m., with 50 units participating. Judges for the parade will be State Fire Marshal Roy Ricker, Fire Inspector Sal Trainer and Leontina Fire Chief, Eldon Holt.

Refreshments will be served by the Women's Auxiliary and the women of the community. Rides, games and prizes are also planned.

Proceeds will go toward the new fire station which is being built.

Receipts Total $44,517; Less Was Expected

Council Attributes Increase to Better Business Conditions

Second quarter receipts of $44,517.34 from the city income tax were up a surprising $1,947.24 over first quarter returns, it was revealed in a report prepared by City Auditor Helen Coyne and released at last night's City Council meeting by finance Committee Chairman Fred Koenreich.

When the one half of one per cent income tax went into effect here on Jan. 1, it was estimated that the tax would yield approximately $150,000 for the year or an average of $37,500 per quarter.

The first quarter was expected to yield slightly more than the $37,500 average since many persons made estimates and paid for the entire year during the first quarter.

Decline Was Anticipated
For this reason, a decline in second quarter receipts had been anticipated. The jump to $44,517.34 came as a pleasant surprise.

Koenreich attributed most of the increase to a pick-up in business during the past few months.

A total of $87,087.54 was collected from the income tax during the first six months. If returns from the second half of the year are as good, the city will take in close to $175,000 or $25,000 more than had been estimated for the year.

A breakdown of the $87,087.54 collected in the first six months shows that $42,847.08 went into the general fund, $28,564.70 into the capital improvements fund and $5,675.76 went toward the total cost incurred in setting up the tax.

Picture Not Rosy
In spite of the bright picture coming from income tax returns, the condition of the general fund is not rosy.

The auditor's report showed a cash balance in the general fund, as of Aug. 1, of $1,222.29, with unpaid encumbrances of $32,711.25.

However, since Aug. 1, the city has received $27,000 from the county in intangible taxes which

Police Probe Three Traffic Mishaps
No one was injured in three traffic accidents in the city Tuesday.

A car drives by Johns Greavu, 68, of 320 Newgarden Ave., collided with a truck operated by Roy W. Haines, Jr., 23, of Romney, W. Va., at the intersection of S. Lincoln Ave. and E. Pershing St. at 1:22 p.m.

Both drivers told police that they had the green light. Haines was traveling south on Lincoln when he was struck from the side by Greavu who was making a right turn off E. Pershing.

Benjamin Abramovitz, 80, of Pittsburgh was fined $10 and costs by Mayor Dean B. Cranmer for failure to yield the right of way after his auto collided with another car at the intersection of N. Ellsworth Ave. and Sugar Tree Alley at 11:15 a.m.

Police said Abramovitz pulled off Sugar Tree Alley into the side of a car driven by William Minett, 18, of RD 4, Salem.

Columbiana Council Acts on Levy Problem

COLUMBIANA — The Board of Elections has thrown out the resolution by Village Council for the one-mill levy earmarked for streets and storm sewers, contending that it was erroneous to write the explanatory words "to wit" for streets and storm sewers after the title "Current Expenses for the Subdivision."

According to law, the explanation for the millage for this purpose can not be put on the ballot as it stands, Council was informed at its meeting last night.

The resolution could be taken to court and legally approved. However, it would be done so too late to be put on the Nov. 7 ballot.

The alternative which Council approved was to place the one mill on the ballot under the title of Current Expenses of the Subdivision, omitting the words "to wit for streets and storm sewers."

It is now up to the councilmen to publicize what this extra one mill will be used for. Councilmen intend to put the explanatory information before the public on their own time and at their own expense.

NO VILLAGE MONEY can be spent for publicity purposes of this type. Reports, charts and graphic pictures will be used to cover the town's income and expenses. The legislators say they intend to show the public what has been done with the present millage and that there is a need for the four mills to continue smooth operation of the village.

The finance committee will meet regularly with various department heads to gather information.

There are many questions that have been asked and answers that should and will be made known, council says. It appears that the biggest question is: What does Council do with all the town's money? "All the town's money" at present millage is approximately $48,000.

The village receives for operation two and eight tenths mills inside the 10-mill limitation and two mills outside the 10-mill limit. This compares with the four and six tenths mills inside the 10-mill limitation and the 10 and eight tenths mills outside the 10-mill limitation that the school system receives.

THE ADDITIONAL ONE mill would raise the amount $58,000. This means it would cost the taxpayer 10 cents on each $100 or $1 on every $1,000 of tax valuation.

However, the revenue will not be received until 1963.

Another little-known fact is that Council has nothing to do with the money in the board of public affairs. The board does with the money as it sees fit.

The councilmen have volunteered to meet with any organization that wishes to discuss the tax situation.

Council approved a transfer of a total of $2,000 from the cemetery service fund into two funds, including $1,000 to the cemetery land and building fund and $1,000 to the cemetery tools and equipment fund to cover payment of current expenses. The deficit from the funds is due to low income and larger expenses than expected.

Thomas Dodds, a village patrolman, suffered a broken ankle after a fall off a ladder recently. It is reported that he will be off duty for the next 12 weeks. Chief of Police William McGuckin said that around-the-clock police coverage of the town will continue.

COLUMBIANA COUNTY Budget Commission has scheduled a budget hearing for Columbiana on Monday, Aug. 28, at 9 a.m. in the auditor's office at the court house in Lisbon. George Snoke, village clerk, and councilmen William Arn, Dale Klingensmith and Skip Robinson will attend the meeting.

Colombian Villages Present Experiment For Peace Corps

EDITOR'S NOTE — There are plenty of problems on Colombia's countryside for the Peace Corps to tackle, including poor health standards, low production and general poverty. And, Colombians in those areas say, the Americans' know-how will be welcome. This is the second of four articles on countries where the corps is due shortly.

By JAMES C. DEWEY

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — Tucked away in a corner of Andean backlands is rural Cuatro Esquinas—onetime bustling stop-over for muleskinners and today one of several Colombian villages under consideration for an experiment in American idealism.

This all-but-forgotten farm community of some 400 persons is typical of the Colombian hamlets where 64 U.S. Peace Corps volunteers will be sent this fall to live and work with the campesinos in a two-year experimental program aimed at helping the Colombian farmer help himself.

Project officials still haven't decided where the volunteers will be sent when they arrive here the last of August for a final month of specialized training. But they'll all be used in a program of community development assistance.

Ranging in age from 19 to 27, most of the volunteers have farm backgrounds. All have undergone intensive training in the United States.

Together with similarly trained young Colombians, they will drill wells, install water and sewage pipe lines, help build schools, gardens, roads, sanitary facilities, organize youth clubs, develop health programs, and introduce more efficient farm production methods.

Peace Corps officials point out that while most U.S. foreign aid has been given for projects tending to underwrite central government operations, the Colombian program will be directed "at the bottom of the social, political and economic pyramid where the need is most immediate and desperate."

The Colombian project is under the direction of the Cooperative for American Relief Everywhere, Inc., CARE, a private agency, in collaboration with the Colombian government's recently organized Community Development Department.

CARE was picked to direct the operation because it has been working with the Colombian government for seven years on similar programs of community development.

The United States will invest about $786,000 in the project, and CARE will contribute $100,000. After the two years CARE officials will evaluate the program and make recommendations about its future to both the Colombian government and the U.S. Peace Corps.

Corpsmen will get $150 a month for living expenses in Colombia, plus a $75 monthly allowance which will be banked in the United States and available only on separation. They will get 30 paid leave days a year.

Cuatro Esquinas is under consideration for a Peace Corps project because the community, which is building an elementary school on its own, showed cooperative activity and willingness to work with an outside agency, a CARE official said. The outside agency in this case was CARE, which is helping with the school project.

Felix A. Soler, a young teacher at Cuatro Esquinas' new school, summed up the general situation: "The people here are good people but easily led," he said. "They will follow the first side—the Russians or the Americans—that comes here and convinces them."

But they don't want to be deceived with false promises. They'll all cooperate with the Americans, but they don't want projects left half done."

Joe Taxpayer Wonders

The idea of a $20 billion project to keep Latin America on the alkaline side of modern ideology confronts Americans with an easy-to-remember round figure.

On the assumption there will be 200 million Americans—North Americans, that is—by the time the $20 billion had been plowed under in Latin America, that would flatten out to $100 per capita.

Of course, per capita would not mean $100 apiece, because these vast federal outlays are not collected share and share alike from very American. By the time children, unemployed, unemployable, tax-exempt and tax evaders have been subtracted, perhaps one American in five would be carrying the responsibility for putting up $20 billion for Latin America.

Aside from individual taxpayers, the burden would be carried by companies and corporations, which must add taxes to the cost of doing business. This means the money is collected from people who buy their goods and services, which means in turn that all spending of this kind is underwritten by the people of the United States. Who else is there?

THE GOVERNMENT has had remarkable success in presenting its spending proposals in such a way as to conceal the truth about this from the people.

When they read about a proposal, they think of the government, not themselves. Yet, when government is close to them, as local government is, they think of every spending proposal as aimed straight at their own pockets. Moreover, they usually exaggerate the amount when the spending is local.

The United States delegation at the Inter-American Economic and Social Conference at Punta Del Este, Uruguay, has just committed U.S. taxpayers to put up $20 billion in the next 10 years for the benefit of Latin America.

Give or take a few billion that might come from elsewhere, all this would be added to the billions that U.S. taxpayers will be continuing to put up for European aid and Asiatic and African aid. All of it will come out of the taxpaying capacity of U.S. citizens and their corporations at a time when they are struggling to underwrite the rising costs of local, state and federal government.

YET IF ANYONE so much as looks cross-eyed at the stupendous totals or wonder if Joe Taxpayer is getting an honest run for the dollar he is gambling on the ideological race, it's almost as if he had expressed a doubt about mother love. And if he has the audacity to suggest that some of the money may be getting away from its handlers, old Joe is looked at as if he had said something rude in the midst of the Oath of Allegiance.

The fact remains that Joe Taxpayer wonders and wonders and wonders, though. If his government is proposing to add $100 per capita to taxes for Latin American relief, which could mean five times that much apiece, what guarantee does he have that he will get an honest run for his money?

Out of Town Until September

An Associated Press dispatch from Paris explains that the only thing saving the De Gaulle regime from big trouble this August is the French vacation custom.

This is the practice, not wholly unknown in the United States, of suspending major enterprises at this late stage of the summer until September. In Paris, the heart of French politics, one-third of the population is estimated to leave the city each year during the month of August. This paralyzes the government.

There is a legend that the English captured Paris in 1442 because they either were lucky enough or shrewd enough to get there when the Parisians were away De August. Even this year, when President de Gaulle is aware of the mounting tensions that may do dire things to his government in September or October, he is taking his usual vacation.

If there is going to be another major upset, it will have to wait.

PERHAPS THERE is something to be learned from this complaisant French attitude toward Frenchmen, political unpleasantness is not so much an emergency as part of the routine of government. No one is going to claim that this has been good for the government of France, but there are many who would claim with deep conviction that it has been good for the people of France.

They have learned that survival is not political. They have learned that they must rely on themselves; that their politicians cannot save them or destroy them.

In the more perfect world that men dare to dream about, perhaps the entire month of August in the North Temperate Zone may be set aside for cogitation and introspection, free from the distraction of politics. As it is now, even Americans no longer have the privilege of a closed season in August during nonpresidential years. It's as though their quadrennial furor has become constant.

Politics with its never-ending alarms and marching up and down goes on around the clock and around the calendar, thanks to air-conditioning and the politician's creed that the worst thing which can happen to a politician is to let himself be forgotten.

NO SO LONG AGO, spokesmen for legislators used to cry piteously during dog days that the heat and humidity of Washington were more than mortal men could bear.

As often as not their claim of man's inhumanity to man was backed up by a fatality or two in summertime Washington among those too frail to withstand the heat, the humidity and the humidity.

Today it isn't inhumanity to legislators citizenry of never having surcease from that's the problem. It's inhumanity to the chatter and clatter of government by deliberation.

It never stops in Washington. Someone should turn off the air-conditioning down there and make the boys come home.

Once Over

Imaginary tape-recording of conversation between first American cosmonaut and President in the Maj. Titov-Khrushchev manner:

Airman: Dear Friends and comrades of the wonderful U.S.A. I have the great honor of carrying out this epochal exploit and wish to thank all the scientists and engineers who built this safe ship, I hope, I hope, I hope. Convey my greetings to noble leader, John F. Kennedy.

President: I embrace you and the Democratic party embraces you.

Airman: Illustrious ruler of a great people, I thank you. This is your outer space eagle bird speaking and I promise not to lay an egg.

President: Washington, and Hyannis embrace you. How are you enjoying the trip?

Airman: I am well and it is a wonderful ride. No traffic snarls or roads under repair anywhere.

President: Boston and Harvard embrace you. Are you eating well?

Airman: I am doing my own cooking and its fun being a weightless cook trying to catch a floating omelette the first time around. Butting the toast is proceeding according to plan. I wish to thank the scientists for putting salt and pepper on this ship and I want to say hello to all my boyhood friends who always said I would never get very far or go very high in life.

President: Can you see much up there?

Airman: I can see some cities, but I can't see Pittsburgh, Minnesota or the Kansas City clubs. A ball just went by me hit by either Maris or Mantle. I wish to give my best wishes to the entire Kennedy family.

President: Thank you. Jacquelin says if she knew you were going she would have baked a cake.

Airman: That does it. I had intended to circle the globe only 15 times but now I shall go for 20!

President: Secretary McNamara and Dean Rusk embrace you.

Airman: I dedicate this ship to the National Democratic Committee, the present administration and little Caroline. Farewell now, dear Americans. I am going to turn in for the night and I wish you the same relaxation down on earth that a man can get way up here.

Collapse Of Communism

By VICTOR RIESEL

EAST BERLIN
From the Cafe Warschau (Warsaw) on Stalin Allee here, or on rubble-strewn streets deeper inside this eastern part of the city, you can see the female street cleaners, the forced labor squads, and the "Freiwilliger Arbeitsdienst," compulsory brigades setting out to do "voluntary" work for the socialist state.

Victor Riesel

These unhappy bands of East Germans, far more than volumes of statistics, are the evidence of N. S. Khrushchev's desperation and fear of industrial collapse.

If his industrial system breaks down in Eastern Germany, the entire Soviet socialist economic bloc will crack wider than the fronts of his eight-year-old showpiece housing on this wide boulevard.

It is important, it is vital, that the outside world know of this fear of Khrushchev's — for East Germany's plants are at the core of his satellite production system.

THE SOVIETS are in such desperate need of manpower, for example, that every person who lives in an apartment on gargantuan Stalin Allee must put in 400 "voluntary" extra work hours on some project or in some plant or manning buses, trams and railroad depots, or clearing rubble to raise piles of building brick, etc. — or they are evicted from their homes.

This is "voluntary" weekend work — after a six-day week in plants and shops.

There are no exceptions. And since July 1 a new Soviet Labor Code has literally set up a system of draft labor. Many an East German angrily calls it modernized slave labor.

Workers can be drafted for a year's work as though they were soldiers. Workers can be tied to their jobs for periods up to a year. This can be extended.

These workers also can be dispatched singly or in groups or teams of specialists anywhere in the East German zone — even to plants hundreds of miles from their homes. Nor need they be given more than a few hours' notice.

Literally, mothers can be separated from their children, wives and husbands can be sent to different cities.

THE ONLY STANDARD is the production needed by the State — and that is determined by what N. S. Khrushchev deems to be the need.

This coordination of East German and USSR production requirements is called "Gleichschaltung."

I have just gone over the new labor code word by word—and here is what it says: "A worker can leave his job only after the interests of society . . . have been taken into account."

The "interests of society" are determined by a Communist functionary called the plant manager, though he really is the Communist party's (SED) political chief in the installation.

This plant manager is the absolute ruler of the industrial unit. He answers only to higher-up regional and industry-wide directors.

If they call for additional workers, the draft is clamped down like an anesthetist's mask in an operating room.

Compulsory allocation of man and womanpower may take place, says the document, either to assure the fulfillment of production plans or if "objective conditions for labor output" do not exist in some regions.

All this is geared to constantly speeded production — faster, faster, faster.

THIS SPEED-UP system must be described, though it does inject a comic opera tone into a grim report on the Soviets human values.

There is a special profession here in the East Zone. It is called "norm setting." A norm is the rate of production—a quota set for each man and woman worker and for each section, department and plant.

The norm setters just sit there and figure how fast a worker can produce every conceivable object turned out by the plants. This includes time off for the bathroom, which is cut shorter and shorter.

But to all this the Soviet industrial experts have added another touch — the norm setters have norm setters of their own.

In other words, there are norm setters whose sole job it is to devise means of speeding up the work of the technicians whose task is to speed up the work of the regular employees.

THIS IS PART of the paramilitary organization of East German industry. The new code refers to this as "socialist labor discipline."

There is a section which even talks of the seriousness of permitting women workers to take a day off to tend to family and household matters.

This section refers to the equal rights of women to work as hard as men. And, if these women do take a day off or if the workers don't meet their norms, then in many plants the workers must pay for the so-called losses.

There isn't any grievance system. Grievances under the new code are handled by "disputes commission." These actually turn out to be spy systems which provide for following workers from the plants to their homes to see what there is in the apartment which keeps a worker from doing his utmost.

Never is the worker alone. In the evening he is covered by a people's representative assigned to each apartment house.

This "rep" in turn reports up the line on each family's conduct, mail and radio listening habits. All is geared to making certain no worker is diverted from working harder and faster.

It is communism which is decaying. Let's get the story told across the world.

West's Trump Card

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Revolt Possible In Soviet Satellites

IN EUROPE
Sealing off, for all practical purposes, the eastern sector of Germany from West Berlin is a measure of desperation by Soviet Premier Khrushchev but it really means that there now is less chance than before of a shooting war between the Soviet Union and the Western democracies.

David Lawrence

For the new development marks the beginning of a protracted stalemate and, for the time being anyway, the question of Allied access routes to West Berlin is not likely to become acute. When the Soviet government does sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany, a vague promise will be given to recognize Allied rights in West Berlin itself.

This is a Soviet device to maintain a kind of status quo, so as to enable Moscow to keep on arguing and negotiating on legal rights indefinitely. Another parley like the one over Laos or disarmament—extending over many months—would not be surprising now.

Khrushchev doesn't want war, but he does want to build up the faltering prestige of the Communists inside East Germany and in the other satellite countries.

To understand what's going on, one has to learn what is being discussed behind the Iron Curtain in some of the Communist-controlled countries other than the Soviet Union.

Diplomats accredited to governments in Western Europe from such countries as Czechoslovakia, Poland, Bulgaria and Romania talk frankly to their colleagues—in private, of course—about what worries them.

FROM SOME of these men—who, though Communist in their ideology, talk sincerely to their fellow diplomats—comes the following composite expression:

"The issue is not West Berlin itself. The existence of the Communist state in East Germany is at stake. We are all affected. The German Communists have been unable to consolidate their position in East Germany. Berlin remains the center of Western propaganda, political activity, and espionage.

"The psychological effects of what's going on in this 'western island' in the midst of a Communist state are growing in importance. Also, East Germany is beginning to suffer from a continuous loss of manpower.

"All this could eventually lead to the collapse of the East German economic and political system.

"This has been pointed out to us again and again by the Communists of East Germany as they have called for help.

"The Soviet Union is willing to help out on this whole situation but we do not believe Moscow will take undue risks—and certainly will not risk war just because of the Berlin issue.

"That's why the Soviet leaders want a 'compromise' of some kind provided the threat against the East German regime can somehow be reduced. That's why a separate peace treaty is so important.

"The present 'balance of power' in Europe could not be maintained if the Soviet Union should lose control of East Germany.

"Repercussions in Poland and Czechoslovakia would inevitably ensue. So it's a matter of prestige and security for the Communist party and the Soviet Union that Soviet power shall extend to the Elbe River."

THE SAME SOURCES point out that neither Poland nor the Soviet Union wants to see Germany reunified. In both countries, there is a genuine fear of a strong Germany.

To some extent, this is an aftermath of World War II but the Communists are also convinced that fundamentally the West has no sincere desire to see the two parts of Germany consolidated.

Anxiety is particularly acute in Poland, where it is feared that the East-West conflict over Berlin can create new problems in the economic as well as political field. For the Polish economy isn't in good shape. Extra defense expenditures would be a big burden and would disturb existing economic progress.

Also, it is argued that undue prominence, together with an increase in influence, has been given to East Germany's Communist leaders, who, incidentally, are closer to Stalinism than are the Polish Marxists.

THE POLES, therefore, are hoping for an arrangement that would give a shot in the arm to Poland. This could come if Western guarantees were obtained for the retention of the Oder-Neisse line as the Polish-German boundary. Poland would breathe easier if the West—and not just the Soviet Union, as at present—also guaranteed this border.

Because of possible predominance of a united Germany in an economic and political sense in Europe, these Communist diplomats believe that it would be better to keep Germany divided and that the surest way to accomplish this would be by a Western signature to a separate peace treaty.

All this really points, on the other hand, to the need of a firmer stand in the West, so as to bring about the reunification of Germany.

It's the West's trump card for the debate itself on this issue not only can keep East Germany in a ferment but it can keep alive the hopes and aspirations inside the Communist satellite countries for eventual freedom from Soviet colonialism.

Oppose Swimming Restriction

Regarding the article about two boys being fined for reckless operation of a motor boat by Judge Louis Tobin, the public is in favor of the judge's action, but th people think very little of the idea of those kids being fined for being in the water as well they may be.

Hundreds of people have sent letters and petitions to the Department of Lakes and Parks in Columbus objecting to their "no swimming" rules, and it appears the department has a lot of identical letters printed as we all get the same answer: no swimming for the best interest of the public on account of the motors.

We, the people, wish someone would come forward and explain to us why the great majority of the public shall be denied the enjoyment of going in the water for the benefit of a few men with motors. To us the public, this idea seems to be the height of folly.

Another point is this. As we all know the department rules have been for years that no motors shall be allowed on a lake which does not contain 500 acres of water. Guilford Lake has 390 acres the public to obey them, which sounds out of reason.

This whole thing could be settled in no time and to the satisfaction of all concerned by posting signs reading: "Swim at Your Own Risk." No Motor Boats Shall Be In Motion Within 100 Feet From The Shore Line, and that is it.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I've been going with a nice girl for six months. She has been telling everyone we are "serious." Her aunts and cousins already have offered congratulations.

I'm in no financial shape to get married and even if I were I wouldn't pick this girl. She's good company but her family never would fit in with mine and she's a little sloppy.

Her mother took me aside last night and offered me a diamond ring which she said I could have remounted for about $25. She even offered to lend me the money if I needed it.

To be honest with you, I did talk a little about marriage but any dummy should know it's part of the line when a couple goes together for several months. How can I get out of this gracefully? —WANT OUT.

Dear Out: You can forget about the "gracefully" part — it's not possible. The best you can do is get out, and the sooner the better, for her sake.

A man who is "in no financial shape" to get married, and wouldn't marry the girl anyway, has no right to take up six months of her time and feed her a line of malarkey just for kicks.

Clearly, you think you're a cut above this girl, but I have news, Brother — you're no red-hot bargain for any girl.

Party Of One

Dear Ann: My husband is as executive in a large company. He thinks nothing of going into a meeting at 5:30 p.m., which means another two hours at least.

The meetings are usually held in the executive board room (where they have a well-stocked liquor cabinet and an ice cube machine) and then they send out for dinner. This means my dinner goes into the garbage can. I've told my husband that the money I waste on food is a crime but he doesn't pay any attention to me.

If he would only give me a phone call and tell me he's eating downtown I'd be satisfied. When he comes home at 8:30 in the evening instead of at 6 of course I'm mad. Who wouldn't be? He then accuses me of being a nagger and not understanding his job.

Why does he do this? What can I do?—MRS. S. R.

Dear Mrs.: Some husbands catch so much heat when they call to say they aren't coming home for dinner that they hate to call. They figure they might as well wait till they get home and catch all of it at once.

The very next time your husband phones to say he won't be home for dinner, be especially sweet and thank him for calling. I'll bet you'll see a vast improvement in his telephone habits.

Delayed Departure

Mostly Support-Type Outfits

Army Puts 111 Reserve Units On Active Duty Alert Status

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army is advising 111 Reserve units, none of them of division size, that they may be called to duty as part of the build-up of U. S. conventional forces for meeting any trouble over Berlin. Most of them probably will be support-type outfits, although there may be some combat units.

This alert plan, similar to one announced recently by the Air Force for 71 Air National Guard and Reserve units, followed closely other moves in manpower expansion by the Air Force and Navy.

The Air Force announced Tuesday that it is aiming at adding about 28,000 men to its strength by asking volunteers to continue on duty after reaching normal active duty termination, and by holding others in service if there aren't enough volunteers. There seemed to be no high hope that the full 28,000 requirement would be met by volunteers.

The Navy announced Monday that it will hold on duty 26,800 men whose service otherwise would end before next June 30. Formal announcement of the Army plan apparently was arranged for an afternoon news conference today by Army Secretary Elvis J. Stahr. He also may discuss more precisely how the Army will use the manpower increase and other authority granted by Congress in line with recommendations made by the Defense Department.

So far the Army has made no announcement concerning call-up of either National Guard or Reserve units. Initially, its attention has been turned primarily to preparing for conversion of three training divisions into combat outfits, to bring total combat divisional strength to 17.

The guess was that if the Army decided it needed to tap Reserve sources for quickly supplying trained units with specially needed skills, it would look for service and support outfits.

These categories normally include such specialized outfits as parachute riggers for airborne forces, medical units, signal, engineer, maintenance and artillery.

Miss Elizabeth Sadler Wed to Robert Earley

Bristol, Tenn., will be the future home of Robert D. Earley and his bride, the former Elizabeth Jane Sadler, who were married day afternoon in the Free Methodist Church in Rushford, N.Y.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sadler of Rushford, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Cora Earley of Woodsdale Road and the late Rev. D. B. Earley.

Rev. David P. Denton of Knoxville, Tenn., president of the Tennessee Conference of Wesleyan Methodist Church and Rev. E. J. Cook, pastor, officiated at the ceremony, before an altar setting of hydrangeas and three-branch candelabra.

Miss Loine Engle of Dayton sang, "Together," "O Perfect Love" and "O Jesus We Have Promised."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor-length gown of cotton satin brocade, styled with a Victorian collar, long sleeves and a full skirt. She wore a fingertip veil of nylon tulle, and carried white roses arranged on a fan which her grandmother carried at her wedding in 1899.

Mrs. George Gee of Lisbon was the matron of honor, with Miss Leona Stoops of Jackson Center, Pa., as the bridesmaid and Miss Susan Jeannette Sadler of Bethesda, Md., niece of the bride, as flower girl.

They wore identical poudre blue floor-length gowns, and each carried a basket arrangement of Juene Anne's lace.

George Gee of Lisbon was the best man. The ushers were Thomas Shuttlesworth of NuMine, Pa. and Richard Sadler of Cortland, N.Y.

The bride's mother wore a navy dress with white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother chose a beige dress with black accessories.

Miss Barbara Earley, of Salem, sister of the bridegroom, assisted at the reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cline of Rushford, N.Y.

The bride attended Houghton College, Houghton, N.Y., and Cornell University, and was employed as a high school English teacher at Griffith Institute and Central School in Springfield, N.Y. The bridegroom attended Central Wesleyan College, Central, S.C., and Salem Bible College.

Following a wedding trip to New York, the couple will reside at 21 Columbia Road, Bristol, Tenn., where Mr. Earley is pastor of the First Wesleyan Methodist Church and is mission pastor at Mendota, Va.

Personsals

J. T. McLaughlin and daughter, Mrs. Helen Jenkins of Birmingham, Ala., have returned home after being called here by the illness of his sister, Mrs. May Zimmerman of 643 E. Pershing St. Mrs. Zimmerman's niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graham of Olean, N.Y., were also visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Arbey Munson of Calumet City, Ind., visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Houger of W. Pershing St. Monday on their way to New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Groves and sons, Paul, Bernie and Dennis of 853 Spring St., have returned from two-week vacation through the South. They visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stamp and children, Dinah, Sheila and Becky, in Sarasota, Fla.

Good Food Basis For Diet

By GAYNOR MADDGX

Food, not starvation, is the basis for any weight loss program every member of the family. Right now, when the new school year begins, teen-age girls should be reminded that sensible eating is the surest way of controlling their weight.

Teen-agers have great need for calories at this actively growing period. In an important new book on overweight problems, "The Safe and Sure Way to Reduce," Dr. W. H. Sebrell Jr., director of the Institute of Nutrition Sciences at Columbia University, is quoted as follows: "The major problem in leading teen-age girls into correct eating habits that will help them grow strong but not fat is to guide their choice of high calorie foods to those that contain large amounts of protein and other nutrients as well as calories. For example as snacks, drinks with a milk base are better than cola drinks, peanut butter sandwiches better than potato chips, cheeseburgers better than candy bars."

Dr. Sebrell warns parents that the tendency to skip breakfast by fat teen-agers is dangerous to their health and is not the way to help them lose weight. A breakfast of fruit juice, cereal with milk, two slices of bread and a glass of milk provide a nutritious teen-age breakfast especially when an egg or a slice of ham is added. No matter how overweight a teen-ager is, he (or she) must eat a balanced breakfast that amounts to from one-third to one-fourth of his total daily food.

Further, in "The Safe and Sure Way to Reduce," he advises parents that even though a child is fat, he or she must eat some food from each of these four groups every day:

1. Meat Group — Two or more servings every day of beef, veal, lamb, pork, variety meats (liver, heart, kidneys), poultry, eggs, fish and shellfish. As alternates, dry beans and peas, lentils, nuts, peanut butter. All these provide protein for growth, iron and B vitamins.

2. Milk Group — Milk and milk products. (For fat teen-agers he suggests non-fat dry milk or skim milk).

3. Vegetable-Fruit Group—Four or more servings a day, with at least one serving from orange and grapefruit for essential vitamin C. The more dark green and yellow vegetables, the better.

4. Bread and Cereal Group — Four or more servings of whole grain, or enriched or restored cereals, including breads, cooked or ready-to-eat cereals, macaroni, rice, noodles. These foods provide food energy, plus liberal amounts of protein, iron, several B vitamins.

Dorothy Gault, a 5-year-old sophomore at a Chicago high school, is an example of the soundness of Dr. Sebrell's advice. She eats lots of the foods, yet is trim, vital and seemingly never tired. She is a teen-age model for professional photographers, a science major at school, honor-T.C., reporter for the school paper, captain of her school's R.O.P. and member of the junior honor society.

What does the vibrant weight-watching schoolgirl-model eat and still remain slender? "I never skip breakfast," she said. "It's usually ready-to-eat cereal with brown sugar and milk, topped with sliced banana. School lunches are too greasy. So I take mine to school—carrot and celery sticks, Melba toast or rye wafers, cold meat, sometimes cheese and fruit. Our dinners are generally built around meat, vegetables, salads and simple desserts. We drink non-fat milk at home, now."

And what snacks does she eat on dates? "Oh, that's easy," said the queen of her school's last Military Ball. "I have a pizza or a hamburger or a Sloppy Joe. Then next day I just cut down on the amount of food I eat."

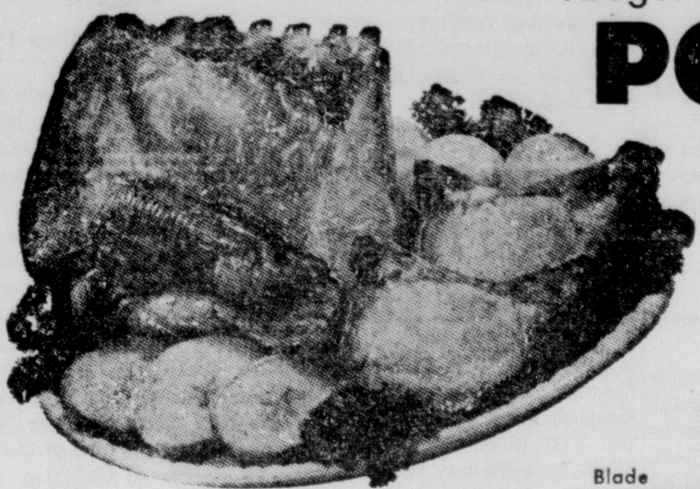

Dorothy Gault's Sloppy Joes
One tablespoon fat, 1/2 cup of chopped onion, 1/4 cup finely diced celery, 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper (if desired), 1 1/2 pounds ground beef, 2 cans (8-ounce) tomato sauce, 1/2 cup water, 1/2 cup rolled oats, quick or regular, 1/4 cup commercial barbecue sauce, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, dash of liquid smoke, if desired.

Melt fat in fry pan. Add vegetables and cook slowly until onions are limp. Add beef and brown lightly. Stir in remaining ingredients; cook over low heat until beef is done and mixture is the desired consistency. Serve hot on buns.

Special Custard Sauce

1 1/2 cups milk, 1/2 pint light cream, 1 package (3 3/4 ounces) vanilla-flavored instant pudding, 1 egg white, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1/4 cup medium-sweet sherry.

Slowly beat together the milk, cream and pudding just until blended. Beat egg white until stiff; gradually beat in the sugar; fold into pudding mixture. Chill; just before serving stir in sherry.

Socialist Party Wins In Israel

Electors Favor Ben-Gurion Group

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion's Socialist Mapai party appeared today to have lost three or four seats in Parliament but remained the country's dominant party. It will be the mainstay of the next government.

Ben-Gurion, now 74, is expected to form another coalition Cabinet made up of the Mapei, the new Liberal party, and possibly religious and left-wing Labor parties to give him a majority in the 120-member Knesset (Parliament).

Mapai losses were attributed as much to high taxes and the cost of living as to Ben-Gurion's fight to shut out former Defense Minister Pinhas Lavon from succeeding him when the perennial prime minister finally retires. Ben-Gurion resigned last January and forced the election as a result of the so-called Lavon Affair.

With half the votes in Tuesday's nationwide election counted, these were the totals so far, and the likely distribution of knesset seats: Mapai 140,465—43 or 44 seats, down 4 or 3; Liberals 50,740—17 seats, up 3; Herut, extreme right nationalist, 45,455—16 seats, down 1; National Religious Front 40,607—11 seats, down 1; Mapam, leftist labor, 37,384—10 seats, up 1; Communists, 4 seats, up 1.

The remainder of the seats would be divided among seven minor parties that were registering about 10 per cent of the vote.

The Mapai percentage of the vote dropped from 38.2 in 1959 to 33.9, while the Liberals increased from 10.7 to 13.0. The latter was formed by a merger of the Progressives and the slightly more conservative General Zionist party.

The Lavon Affair was rarely mentioned during the campaign, and Lavon kept silent. He was forced out of the Cabinet in 1955 and accused of ordering a military venture that failed. Ben-Gurion resigned when a Cabinet committee exonerated the younger man. Details of the military venture have been kept under censorship.

Leetonia

LEETONIA — Mrs. Elizabeth Andler was honored recently on her 92nd birthday anniversary when her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sauerwein, entertained at a family dinner.

Present were her son, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Andler of Taunton, Mass., and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Less of Greenford, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Sambaugh of Massillon and Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Salem.

Mrs. Andler received many visitors. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Gosney of Fort Pierce, Fla., are spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sauerwein.

The Coterie Club held a steak fry at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gologram Monday evening. The birthdays of Mrs. Gologram and Mrs. William Floding were celebrated. The husbands of the members were guests.

The Leetonia High School annuals will be distributed at an autograph party tonight from 7:30 to 10 at Orchard Hill School.

The Intermediate M.Y.F. of the Methodist Church will meet Thursday evening at 6. The Senior M.Y.F. will hold its first meeting of the fall season at 8 Thursday evening.

Rusk and Kennedy, but the President spoke "off the record," and nothing any of the officials said could be attributed to them under the rules of the conference.

From various statements made at the conference, however, it is apparent that U.S. officials regard the flight of thousands of East Germans from Communist rule and the closing of the East-West Berlin border as a black eye for Soviet Communist prestige and propaganda all over the world. The significance of this development is judged to be twofold:

1. It should make easier the task of the United States in putting across to the leaders and peoples of the newly independent countries in Africa and Asia the contention that communism has been a failure in East Germany and that it is not the "wave of the future."

2. At the same time, the whole affair of the refugees may dangerously complicate the problem of trying to negotiate with Soviet Premier Khrushchev a peaceful solution for the broader Berlin crisis in which the refugee problem stands as a single dramatic incident.

Khrushchev's aim in trying to get the Western powers out of West Berlin and give that city a new status is believed here to be the stabilization of the Communist position in East Germany and generally in Eastern Europe.

County, within a short distance of each of the districts. He said the merger would create an ideal rural district and that the high school would have about 240 pupils in its second year of operation. Johnson claimed that 70 per cent of Franklin District residents are in favor of this consolidation.

He said Franklin residents do not want their children to travel 13 miles in school buses to the high school near Highlandtown. Johnson said the county board had received a petition from the Franklin Local residents. He said one also was sent to the Ohio Board of Education and another to the Carroll County School board.

County Board members said they had no legal authorization to transfer school districts outside of Columbiana County but would acknowledge receiving the petition from Franklin Local in the minutes of last night's meeting.

Franklin Local residents opposed to the merger with Southern Local have 30 days in which to remonstrate. They must secure 35 per cent of the signatures of voters in the entire district on a petition in order to have the remonstrance placed on the ballot. The entire district would then vote on the issue.

In other business the board authorized bills of $681.09 be paid. The board's next meeting will be Sept. 18, at 8 p.m.

would take a couple of months to prepare a test shot if a presidential go-ahead is given.

The general opinion within the administration is that the United States would lose little advantage by waiting a few more months before it moves into the field of perfecting types of smaller-scale nuclear weapons.

This is contrary to the way Republican congressional leaders view the matter.

Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and House Minority Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana called at a news conference Tuesday for resumption of testing. They said stalled negotiations with the Russians should not be permitted to "sandbag the nation's safety."

Halleck and Dirksen said they have "quite authentic information" that the Russians have been testing all along. This view seems not to be shared by Kennedy administration leaders.

ANSWER 2 ALARMS

LISBON — Volunteer Firemen answered two alarms Tuesday, at 2:16 p.m. at the Frank Todd residence on Rt. 64 where brush was on fire, and at 8:32 p.m. at the home of Clem Wolfgang on County Road 420, north of Elkton, where grass was ablaze.

Deaths, Funerals

Bonita Moser

COLUMBIANA—Bonita Louise Moser, 7, daughter of Marion and Dorothy Crider Moser of RD 2, Columbiana, died at the Salem City Hospital at 9:45 p.m. Tuesday of uremic poisoning. She had been ill for two weeks.

Born January 27, 1954 she was a member of the United Church of Christ of Columbiana and attended second grade at Fairfield School.

Beside her parents she is survived by a brother, Wayne Elwood at home; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moser of RD 2, Columbiana; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crider of RD 2, Columbiana, and paternal great-grandfather, Jacob Moser of Orville.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Seidley-Beilhart Funeral Home here, with burial in Columbiana Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday evening.

Wayne Whitehead

EAST PALESTINE — Wayne Whitehead, 45, of State Line Road, RD 1, East Palestine, died at 8:45 a.m. today at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Pittsburgh where he was taken at noon Tuesday.

Born here Jan. 8, 1916, he was the son of George and Zella Gorb Whitehead.

He was a former employee of the W. S. George Pottery Co. here.

A veteran of World War II, he served five years in the Army and was wounded while serving in Germany.

Survivors include his wife, Mildred Cope Whitehead; two sons, James and Kevin; and a daughter, Martha, all at home; five brothers, Howard, Willis, Bernard, Gene, and Audley; and two sisters, Mrs. Florence Seiter and Mrs. Martha Libert, all of East Palestine.

Arrangements are pending at the Oliver Funeral Home here.

12 Countains Inducted Into Armed Services

LISBON — Twelve men left by bus Tuesday afternoon from the Columbiana County Draft Board for induction into the armed services at Cleveland. One scheduled to leave failed to appear, according to Elaine Griffith, clerk of the board. Inducted were:

East Liverpool — Raymond Christian, Joseph J. Hampson, Charles R. Clark, J. H. Moss and William W. Jones.

Salem — Jerry E. Snowberger, 537 Franklin st.; John E. Strifeler RD 2, and Paul V. Solmen (Detroit) formerly of Salem.

Robert L. Curtis, Wellsville; Fred W. Polen, Salineville; John Remish, East Palestine, and Earl Crowl (Suffield) formerly of Lisbon RD 5.

Seven more men will be sent for induction next Tuesday, completing the boards quota for August.

Fifty-six will be sent for physicals Sept. 19. The board's first call for the September induction is 19 men. Another call for September is expected, Mrs. Griffith said.

rod was a sensitive magnetometer.

The space agency reported the payload instruments were to make the most extensive probe yet attempted of the earth's magnetic fields and other fields in space and their interaction with solar winds—great clouds of ionized gases which burst from the sun and zip through space, distributing cosmic rays, electrons, protons and other energetic particles.

Many earlier satellites charted magnetic fields and space radiation, but Explorer XII is the first to investigate them simultaneously.

During periods of high solar flare activity, billions of charged particles bombard the earth, causing magnetic storms and upsetting radio and television communications.

Lisbon School Contracts Let By Board

LISBON — Low bidders were awarded contracts to furnish coal, milk, gasoline and oil, and to service school buses by the Village School Board Tuesday evening.

Bids also were opened for purchase of a 9-passenger school bus. The Long Coal Co. of Lisbon RD 3, was awarded the coal contract on its bid of $5.50 a ton. It was the lowest of four bids which ranged as high as $6.10 a ton.

The milk bid went to Purity Dairy Co. of Beloit which will furnish 1/2 pints of milk and chocolate milk at a price of 5 1/2 cents for white milk and 6 cents for chocolate. Bids were received from two other dairies.

Wilson Gulf Station on E. Lincoln Way received the school bus contract. It will provide gasoline at a price one cent below the regular rate and oil, five cents under. Lubrication will be free except for the cost of grease. The station will charge $6 for washing buses. There were two other bids.

Bids for the purchase of a school bus were received Lewton Garage, $4,200; O.S. Hill Inc., $2,800; Leyman Bors, $2,566.32, and Lewis Chevrolet, $2,711. No action was taken by the board.

School bus insurance was renewed with the Nationwide Insurance Co. for the coming season at approximately $450 a year.

Robert Firestone of Columbiana, a Geneva College graduate, was hired to teach social science and physical education in the Junior High School. He will also be in charge of elementary football and basketball. Mrs. Margaret Maturan of Lisbon, substitute teacher last year, was hired as librarian. The board accepted the resignation of Robert Theiss of Salem who was given the head basketball coaching job at Olmstead Falls.

Supt. Russell Armitage reported on the opening of school. He requested that Ross Gilbert be hired as a part-time custodian at the American Legion Home and St. George's parish hall which will house two classrooms this year.

The board purchased two new electric typewriters for the typing class.

The board expressed appreciation to the Booster club for replacing the lights at the Memorial Stadium at a cost of about $2,000.

Electronic Facilities

NEWBURGH, N.Y. (AP) — Enemy bombers and intercontinental ballistic missiles theoretically were over 10 million square miles of North America Tuesday night in a six-hour test of electronic facilities.

The test was staged by the North American Air Defense Command (NORAD) to train personnel manning detection and defense direction facilities along seaward approaches to the United States and Canada.

Some 6,250 officers and men at about 800 installations took part in the exercise. It was devised to represent the problems which would be involved in an attack by 549 intercontinental missiles and submarine launched projectiles, plus 420 bombers.

But the entire operation was merely for the testing of electronic equipment and the men in charge of it. No actual planes or missiles were involved.

NORAD headquarters is at Stewart Air Force Base here.

Halibut Deluxe

1 1/2 pounds halibut steaks, 2 tablespoons butter, salt and pepper, 2 cups seasoned mashed potatoes, 4 small tomatoes, buttered crumbs.

Arrange steaks on broiling pan; dot with half the butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Broil about 3 inches from source of heat for about 10 minutes.

Turn steaks; dot with remaining butter and sprinkle with salt around fish; place tomatoes (tops cut off and sprinkled with buttered crumbs) at sides of pan.

Broil until fish flakes easily—about 10 minutes longer. Note: Have the halibut cut into 4 thick steaks.

Council

will help trim the deficit considerably.

In addition to the discussion on the income tax report, Council also had a busy night enacting legislation. Nine ordinances were given final approval.

Ordinances Passed

Ordinances passed last night will do the following:

1. Require licenses and bonds of persons tearing down old buildings in the community. The issuing of permits, costing $2, will be administered and enforced by the fire chief.

2. Regulate the installation of storm drains and driveway culverts within public rights of way.

3. Authorize the auditor to transfer $3,500 from the sewage department replacement fund to the sewage revenue fund to make money available for bonds and interest payments.

4. Authorize the auditor to transfer $7,500 from the note and interest fund to the real estate fund to provide money for the payment of real estate purchased by the city. This is for the final payment on the Knights of Pythias property next to City Hall which was purchased by the city for $15,000.

5. Authorize the auditor to transfer $400 from the food service fund to be used for the sanitary officer's salary.

6. Authorize the auditor to transfer $975 from the contingent fund to the building maintenance fund to finance the washing of walls, woodwork, light fixtures and Venetian blinds at the City Hall Building.

The other three ordinances passed last night deal with the resurfacing of city streets. The ordinances were given both second and third readings.

The streets to be resurfaced with two and a half inches of asphalt concrete are as follows: Penn Ave. — from E. Pershing St. to E. State St.

N. Broadway — from E. State St. to E. 4th St.

Lundy Ave. — from E. Pershing St. to E. 4th St.

In each instance the city will share half the total cost with the benefiting property owners. Appropriated from the capital improvement fund for the city's share of each project were: $3,414.16 for Lundy, $2,039.73 for N. Broadway and $1,721.38 for Penn.

Aubrey Hayes, superintendent of utilities, reported to Council that the "no fishing" law at the 68-acre Salem City Lake, eight miles south of town, will be strictly enforced. Numerous violations have been reported there recently, he noted.

Councilman Donald Cannon reported that a proposal to rezone a portion of Columbia St. from R-1 (single family residential) to B-1 (general business) is now ready for a public hearing.

Mayor Dean B. Cranmer suggested that Council consider the possibility of purchasing a used grader for clearing snow off city streets this winter. He said that the city last year used a grader which belonged to Perry Township whose trustees have asked that the city make some other arrangements this year. The city owns one grader.

The mayor also reported that he expects to hear from the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency in a few days on the city's application for a $45,000 loan to finance engineering planning and sub-surface testing at the proposed W. State St. overpass project.

Council will meet as a "committee of the whole" at 7 p.m. Thursday at City Hall to discuss several items, including wage increases for city employees.

Also to be discussed Thursday are the new Pershing St. parking lot and proposed parking restrictions on several city streets.

Council wants to meet with merchants Thursday to find out what hours they want the new parking lot to be in operation.

The general feeling of Council is that the lot should operate 24 hours a day, seven days a week with a possibility of free parking on Sunday mornings.

Ralph Zimmerman, traffic and safety committee chairman, said he would like to get the final recommendations of the other Council members Thursday on new parking restrictions on various city streets so that an ordinance can be drawn up putting them into effect.

10-Man Crew Set To Fly Back Airliner

HAVANA (AP)—A $2.5-million Eastern Air Lines passenger plane swapped for a $50,000 Cuban patrol boat in the aftermath of a hijacking wave may return to Miami Fla., today.

A 10-man airline crew arrived in Havana Tuesday to fly back the Lockheed Electra hijacked to Cuba last July 24 with 38 persons aboard.

The patrol boat, seized by Cuban refugees four days after the plane was hijacked, left Key West, Fla., for Cuba under a plane-for-boat deal.

Three Cuban sailors manned the 38-foot craft. The Coast Guard escorted the vessel to America's three-mile limit and returned several guns that were aboard the boat when it reached Key West.

A Miami lawyer tried unsuccessfully to attach the boat for Terry Kane, an American whose Cuban tractor business Fidel Castro's government seized. A Florida court awarded Kane a judgment of $533,998 against the Castro regime.

Another American creditor of the Cuban government, Miami advertising man Erwin Harris, relinquished a court claim to the boat. Harris already has seized a number of Cuban airplanes in the United States to apply toward a $429,000 judgment.

The U.S. government said the boat was not subject to court seizure because it is a government naval vessel.

Elderly Man Slain In Reedurban Home

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Robbery apparently was the motive for the slaying of an elderly antique collector at his home in nearby Reedurban, Sheriff W. J. Hine said.

The body of James Edward Crawford, 68, was discovered by Stark County sheriff's deputies Tuesday night under a pile of clothes in a bedroom closet. The rest of the room had been ransacked, but officers could not determine what — or how much — was taken.

Crawford had been shot twice, apparently with a .38-caliber pistol and had been dead for 36 hours before the body was found, according to acting Coroner H.W. Gaucha.

Crawford's big, brown boxer dog, an 80-pounder, also was killed. The watchdog had been slugged with blackjacks and stabbed. His body was found stuffed in a stairway closet.

The strange part of the slaying, authorities reported, was that Crawford's most valuable possessions—antique guns, coins, dueling pistols, framed Indian relics — were left untouched from their spot on an enclosed sunporch. Only the upstairs bedroom showed signs of disturbance.

Crawford's wife died more than a year ago.

29, of RD 1, Salem backed into a car parked in a private lot behind the Ohio Bar & Grill on E. State St. at 11:40 p.m. Tuesday. The parked car was owned by Ronald Lee Cushman of 360 Columbia St.

Other drivers fined by Mayor Cranmer yesterday and this morning were:

Frank Dicke, 23, of 337 N. Lincoln Ave., speeding, $20; Jack S. Gilhart, RD 2, Salem, failure to yield right of way, $10; Howard Seese, 47, of Hartsville, overload, $159; and Jack Reeves, 21, of Milford, Ill., overload, $25.

Berlin

replied to a protest made nearly two weeks ago against harassment of East Berliners commuting to work in West Berlin.

He has yet to take notice of the three Western military leaders' protest of Tuesday that a new Iron Curtain across Berlin has stopped the commuters entirely. The protest said Communist measures have turned the city into an armed camp in the most flagrant violation of four-power agreements since the 1948-49 blockade.

In a letter to Maj. Gen. Albert Watson II, U.S. commandant in Berlin, Solovoyev said: "The attempts of the commandant of the American garrison in Berlin to interfere with measures of the German Democratic Republic are completely inappropriate. These measures are exclusively within the competence of the government of the GDR and serve the rightful interests of the republic and its citizens."

The Soviet colonel said Watson was trying to extend to East Berlin "the out-lived occupation regime artificially supported by the American authorities in West Berlin."

Reports of Western reluctance to counter the Red closure with economic reprisals came in the wake of an East German threat to repeat the 1948-49 blockade if Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany cuts off trade with the East German regime.

West German border guards reported the first sign of Communist interference with travel between East and West Germany proper. Guards at Bebra and Lauenburg on the border said East German travelers were taken off trains when they reached the checkpoint.

At Helmstedt, the chief crossing point for highway traffic, guards reported remarkably little traffic from East Germany. At Luebeck, where normally six cars arrive from East Germany in a morning, none arrived today.

No East Germans were aboard trains crossing the Bavarian border today.

The West Berliners' feeling that they have been let down by the Western powers was reported to have impressed Edward R. Murrow, head of the U.S. Information Agency, who left after a three-day visit.

"They just shoveled the frustration at him," said one person with Murrow at a reception attended by West Berlin officials.

Gen. Bruce C. Clarke, commander in chief of the U.S. Army in Europe, arrived in Berlin for a conference with American troop commanders and had a talk with West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt.

The British ambassador to West Germany, Sir Christopher Steel, also arrived today. U.S. Ambassador Walter C. Dowling is coming Friday.

In Bonn, Adenauer met for an hour with the Soviet ambassador, Andrei Smirnov.

West Berlin officials predicted that outbursts against the cautious Allied stand might erupt as a giant rally Mayor Willy Brandt called this afternoon to protest the Communist squeeze. At least 200,000 were expected to turn out.

West Berliners were already voicing their indignation over the Western position.

"They're selling us down the river," said one.

Many West Berliners looked for Adenauer's government to act on its own against the Communists if the United States, Britain and France would not go along.

The chancellor two days ago spoke in favor of a complete Western trade break with the Soviet bloc. The Bonn government has said it would act only in accord with its Allies, but with national elections only a month away, Adenauer undoubtedly is under pressure at home to take concrete measures against the Communist East German regime's ban on East Germans traveling into West Berlin.

West German Ambassador Wilhelm Grewe said in Washington Tuesday night that measures more than theoretical would be taken against the new Red barrier. The Bonn government announced the lower house of the German Parliament would meet Friday to take its own counter-measures.

The U.S., British and French governments were at work on notes to the Soviet government protesting the restrictions on German movement in Berlin. But U.S. officials in Washington said privately that no strong counter-measures could be taken because the Red barricade applied only to Communist territory. They pointed out that the Communists in effect were only doing to East Germany what they did years ago to the rest of the Soviet bloc and that Western access to West Berlin, by both West Germans and others, so far had not been impaired.

Plan

perts a foothold in countries that will receive U.S. aid under the program.

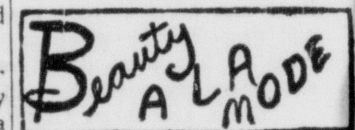

A U.S. spokesman announced that two reports from the U.S. Embassy in Caracas, produced by Guevara earlier in the conference as evidence of U.S. interference in Latin America, were stolen from the automobile of U.S. Ambassador Teodoro Moscoso when a leftist mob burned it in Caracas in June.

One of the documents, prepared by the labor attaché at the Caracas embassy, criticized certain administrative procedures and tax systems of the Venezuelan government. The other, reviewing Latin American feeling in Cuba after the abortive April invasion, said the United States probably could not persuade a majority of the Latin American states to join in a quarantine of Cuba and that even if it did Mexico and Brazil would refuse to cooperate.

Moscoso at the time of the attack on his car was attending an art exhibit at Caracas University. The spokesman could not explain why the brief case was left in the car or what precautions had been taken to guard it.

Smithfield Trips Stepanic's 5-3 for District Crown

Amvets Score 3-0 Win Over Tullis'

Smithfield Falcon A.C., paced by Perry Jeeter's two homers, captured the District Softball Tournament by upending Stepanic's Tavern, 5-3 Tuesday at Kelley Park.

The win was the fourth straight for the Smithfield aggregation in tourney play as they emerged undefeated champions of the double elimination tournament. Smithfield now moves into the state tournament, which will get underway in Clyde, near Fremont, this weekend.

IN A LONE Class A league battle played last night the Alliance Amvets blanked Tullis' American, 3-0 on Mike Burnett's three-hitter.

Jeeter was too much for Stepanic's as he drove in four of the five Smithfield runs. The winners took a 1-0 lead in the first inning on a single by Fred McGee, a sacrifice by Milt Christian and a Stepanic's error.

Stepanic's moved into a 3-1 margin in the third inning on four bunts and a bases loaded single by Vince Weyant that brought in two tallies. Dick Daugherty started things off with the first bunt, followed by another by Carson McNeely. Benny Roelen reached first on an error to load the bases and a sacrifice by Jack Myers brought in the first tally.

WITH THE BASES set oaded the stage was set for Weyant's single that drove in two runs that gave the losers a shot-lived 3-1 advantage.

Smithfield came back in the last half of the third to take a 4-3 lead on Jeeter's three-run homer, his first of the game.

The winners chalked up their fifth run in the fifth frame on Jeeter's second round-tripper of the battle.

Myers collected two hits to feature in the Stepanic's attack. All six hits for Stepanic were singles.

Ray Carney hammered out 3 hits in three trips to the plate for the winners to aid the slugging of Jeeter.

Y. A. Tittle Traded to Grid Giants

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The 49ers' veteran quarterback, Y.A. Tittle, has been traded by the San Francisco National Football League entry to the New York Giants.

In exchange, the 49ers, now basically a young club in the third year reign of Coach Red Hickey, picked up lineman Lou Cordileone, 23.

Tittle, 35, is a 13-year pro veteran, 11 in the NFL, the last 10 with San Francisco. He owns the best pass completion average of any active quarterback, 55.3 per cent. In his 11 NFL campaigns, one with Baltimore, he completed 1,387 of 2,510 passes for 17,900 yards and 116 touchdowns.

He was 69 of 127 for 694 yards and 4 touchdowns in 1960, a season that saw him plagued mid-way by a groin injury and the installation of Hickey's new spread offense — "my quarterback-run-with-the-ball shotgun."

Cordileone, 6-3 and 255 pounds out of Clemson, was the Giants' first draft choice in 1959. As a rookie in 1960 he saw service as an offensive guard-tackle and a defensive tackle-end.

The trade was made after Saturday's exhibition game between the two clubs. The Giants won 21-20, but Tittle almost pulled it out.

He came off the bench, rallied the 49ers from a 21-13 deficit and then hit Monte Stickles in the end zone. But the play was called back.

Maris Mad Over Foul That Costs Him Homer

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Roger Maris was an angry man Tuesday night after hitting his 46th homer of the season for the Yankees.

Maris' flow of words did not stem from the homer, which put him one ahead of Mickey Mantle in their tremendous duel with Babe Ruth's 60-homer record the objective. Rather it stemmed from the home run he didn't hit as the Chicago White Sox nipped the Yankees 2-1 behind the four-hit pitching of Lefty Naiman. Pizarro. Foul Only By Inches

"It couldn't have been foul by more than this much," growled Maris, holding his hands about

Jets Hands Muck's First Loss, 64-46

Dell's Jets handed Muck's All-Stars their first defeat of the season as they dumped the league leaders, 64-46 in summer basketball league action at the Centennial Park Court Thursday. Muck's record now stands at 8-1 for the season.

Four players hit in double figures for Dell's with Ed Koch high with 18 followed closely by Jim Forest with 18. Clyde Schoff and Larry Schutler garnered 14 and 10 points respectively. Ed Daugherty was high for the losers with 24.

In other scheduled action Tom's Sunoco and Tom's Kats had a double forfeit.

Action will resume Thursday when Tom's Kats play Dell's Jets and Muck's All-Stars battle Tom's Sunoco.

Red Sox Blank Indians 8-0; Pirates Fall; Maris Clouts 46th Homer

Tigers Split, Pressing Yanks For Top Spot; Chisox Stop Ford 2-1

By The Associated Press
If anyone scratched Detroit from the American League race, forget it. The Tigers look as if they mean to stay close enough to pounce on their first pennant in 16 years in their final two showdown encounters with the first place New York Yankees.

Fact is, if the bounce-back Tigers can keep it up, it might be the Yankees who are scrambling to get back on top when they meet again Sept. 1-3 at New York and Sept. 15-17 in Detroit.

Strictly Tiger Yankee Race
Anyway you look at it, it's strictly a Tiger-Yank race—with Detroit's Frank Lary pressing Yankee Whitey Ford as the AL's top pitcher, Tiger Norm Cash battling New York Elston Howard for the batting title and Cash, Rocky Colavito and Al Kaline in the running with Yanks Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris for the Most Valuable Player Award.

Those four big men in Detroit's pitch for a pennant kept the Tigers on the prowl with a double-header sweep over Baltimore Tuesday night. Lary won his 17th with a four-hit shutout in a 2-1 first game victory decided by Cash's two-run homer. And Kaline then delivered the payoff single in a three-run ninth that won the nightcap 3-2.

Southpaw Juan Pizarro knocked off the Yankees 2-1, meanwhile by allowing just four hits, one Maris' 46th home run, as the Chicago White Sox ended Ford's winning streak at 14 games and shaved New York's lead over Detroit to two games.

In the other AL games, Boston banged Cleveland 8-0 with five home runs, the Los Angeles Angels defeated Washington 8-7 and Minnesota cracked Kansas City 9-4.

In the National League, second place Cincinnati trimmed Los Angeles' lead to one game by beating the Dodgers 5-2. San Francisco defeated St. Louis 3-2, Milwaukee rapped Pittsburgh 4-1 and the Chicago Cubs handed Philadelphia its 18th straight loss 6-5.

Lary (17-6) gave up nothing but singles while hanging up his third shutout. He struck out five and walked only two in a double four-hit duel with loser Chuck Estrada (9-7) and Hoyt Wilhelm. Cash, who has a two percentage point lead over Howard in the batting race at .357, settled it by socking his 30th home run, with Colavito on base, in the seventh inning.

The Tigers then battled back from defeat in the nightcap for their sixth success in eight games, coming from behind on four consecutive singles off loser Hec Brown (9-4) and relievers Billy Hoeft and Wes Stock with two out in the ninth. Chico Fernandez started the rally with a one-out double before Reno Bertoia, pinch-hitters Bubba Morton and George Alusik and Kaline singled. It was Alusik's first major league hit. Gerry Staley (2-4) was the winner in relief.

Ford Beaten By Chisox
The White Sox handed Ford (20-3) his first defeat since May 29 on Camilo Carreon's two-out, two-run single in the second inning. Pizarro (8-5) struck out 10, twice fanning Mantle (0-for-4), and didn't have any trouble except for Maris' fifth home run in five games in the fifth inning. That broke a tie between Mantle and Maris and sent Roger 14 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record-60 pace of 1927.

Cincinnati Downs Los Angeles 5-2, Trails by 1

Schedule Favors Reds In Stretch

By CHARLES MAHER
LOS ANGELES (AP) — People who keep looking for the Cincinnati Reds in the obituary columns instead of the won-and-lost columns will be dismayed to learn today that the subject is still more dead than alive.

Even after their 5-2 victory over Los Angeles Tuesday night, the Reds were four games behind the Dodgers in the lost column—and one game back over-all. But if the Reds have no advantage here, they may have one in the remainder of the National League schedule.

Reds Have 12 Left On Road

After their doubleheader with the Dodgers tonight, the Reds will have only 12 games left on the road and 23 at home. The Dodgers play 27 on the road, only 14 at home.

Even when you take into account that the Dodgers have been more successful abroad than at the Coliseum, the schedule still seems to favor Cincinnati. After tonight the Reds will have 12 games remaining with first-division clubs, the Dodgers 20.

Moreover, the Reds will be idle 10 days during September. This may permit manager Fred Hutchinson to lighten the load on his young pitchers, who have come upon troubled times lately. He could, in fact, use his top three starters almost exclusively.

"I don't really know if the schedule will be a big advantage," Hutchinson said. "We just hope that's the way it works out."

"We're still four games down on the loss side. Those are four games that the Dodgers have got to lose—that we've already lost."

Doubleheader Slated Tonight

A crowd of 50,000 or more is expected for tonight's doubleheader. Jim O'Toole (11-9) and Bob Purkey (13-9) will start for the Reds, and Johnny Podres (15-3) and Larry Sherry (4-2) will work for the Dodgers.

Tuesday night, righthander Joey Jay recovered brilliantly after a rough start and scored his 17th victory in 24 decisions. The big righthander gave up three hits and two runs in the first inning, then shut out the Dodgers on three hits the rest of the way. He retired 11 straight batters in one span.

Frank Robinson ran his runs-batted-in total to 100 and tied the score with a two-run double in the fifth. Wally Post produced the deciding run with a homer in the sixth.

Jerry Lynch improved his extraordinary pinch-hitting record in the seventh, driving in the fifth Cincinnati run with a double. It was Lynch's 18th hit and 24th RBI in 38 times at bat as a pinch hitter. His pinch hitting average is .474.

Maury Wills opened the Dodger first with a walk and Jim Gilliam followed with a single. Wills scored on a single by Duke Snider and Gilliam came in when Wally Moon also singled.

Dodgers Get One Hit

The Dodgers got only one hit from then until the eighth, when Snider led off with a single and was thrown out trying to make it a double. Two walks and a single by Johnny Roseboro loaded the bases in the same inning, but the threat collapsed when Tom Davis hit into a force play.

Lefthander Sandy Koufax, who hasn't won at home since June 11, pitched six innings for Los Angeles and took the loss. He is 13-8.

Three Players Involved In Cage Scandals NCAA Strips St. Joseph's Of 3rd Place Tourney Berth

SEATTLE (AP) — The executive committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association has stripped St. Joseph's College of Philadelphia of its third-place ranking in the NCAA Basketball Tournament.

The school also was directed Tuesday to return trophies and medals awarded to it and to individuals on its team.

A regulation which has been in force several years but never was invoked was the basis of the action.

Players Involved In Scandal

Three of the school's players, involved in basketball gambling scandals, were declared ineligible after the tourney. The regulation on which the committee acted states that if an athlete competes ineligible, the position of his school in a championship event must be vacated.

Therefore, there is no third-place winner in the national tournament. Utah, which placed fourth, remains in fourth place.

The three players involved were Frank Majewski, Jack Egan and Vince Kempton.

NCAA Sets New Policy

The committee set up a policy aimed at making it more difficult for gamblers to operate in connection with NCAA tournaments. The events are to be held on-campus if possible. If that is not possible, the host school will have complete supervision and management if the event is approved.

The sites of the four regional basketball tournaments were announced. The East regional will be at the University of Maryland, the Midwest at Kansas State and the West at Brigham Young University. All will be March 16-17.

The University of Kentucky will host the finals March 23-24.

In case you hear a small charge of dynamite going off and you wonder what happened, don't get excited. It's one of our local "gun cranks" trying to re-live the day's of his old great-great grandpappy.

Actually they are not gun cranks at all but the present day generation who like to shoot the old muzzle loaders like their ancestors did who appreciate these old time weapons that use to provide meat for the family table.

ACTUALLY, THESE old weapons are much safer than the modern fire arms, as the "minnie balls" they are loaded with does not have the power behind them like a 30-06 that could ricochet and kill or injure a mile away from the point of impact. When the "minnie ball" strikes the velocity is spent.

After being fired the shooter has to wait for the smoke of the black powder to clear and then see if it hit the target. The target this time of the year is limited to groundhogs, the only legal game in season. This does not rule out vermin. Also many old-time rifle shoots are held from time to time.

The 1961 law digest of the state hunting and trapping regulations have been distributed to the various license agencies. I don't know of a better time to study up on the regulations than now. Some changes and additions have been made and it is up to the individual hunter to know when to hunt, how to hunt and the shooting regulations.

FIVE COUNTIES will have an open season on beavers in 1962, beginning Feb. 15 through Feb. 28, both dates inclusive. Beavers may be taken in Ashtabula, Columbiana, Mahoning, Portage, and Trumbull counties. The bag limit is two per season. One very important requirement is that the trapper must provide a written

Stuffed Hen

2 Rock Cornish game hens (1 pound each), 1/3 cup butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons each sliced onion and celery, 8 thin slices bread (cut in tiny squares, including crusts), 2 pimientos (drained and chopped), 2 tablespoons minced parsley, 1 teaspoon salt and 1/8 teaspoon pepper.

Split game hen in half lengthwise. Reserve 1 tablespoon of the butter; cook onion and celery lightly in remaining butter and mix with remaining ingredients.

Place stuffing in 4 mounds on foil in shallow baking pan; place one-half of a game hen over each mound. Melt reserved tablespoon of butter and brush game hen with it. Bake in hot (400 degrees) oven about 40 minutes or until game hen is tender; increase heat to 450 degrees for last 10 minutes if necessary to brown skin. Makes 4 servings.

Cherry Mold

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin, 1/2 cup cold water, 3 cups sweet dark cherries (pitted), 1/2 cup sugar, 1 1/2 cups water, 1-3 cup lemon juice.

Soften gelatin in 1/2 cup cold water. Cook pitted cherries, sugar and 1 1/2 cups water together gently until cherries are soft 10 minutes.

Drain juice; measure; add water if necessary to make 1 1/2 cups. Add softened gelatin and lemon juice to hot cherry juice; stir until dissolved.

Chill until partly set; fold in cherries. Turn into 1-quart mold. Chill until firm. Turn out; garnish with water cress and whole fresh cherries.

Cottage-Style Eggs

6 eggs, 1/2 teaspoon salt, white pepper, 3 tablespoons chopped chives, 3/4 cup dry cottage cheese, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine.

Beat eggs with salt and pepper just until yolks and whites are combined; stir in chives. Melt butter in 10-inch skillet until very hot; add egg mixture.

Cook over moderately low heat, scraping egg from sides of pan as it sets.

Just before the eggs are completely set, stir in lightly the cheese.

Note: Dry cottage cheese comes in bulk; it also comes in containers marked pot-style cheese.

Peach Melba

One package (10 ounces) frozen raspberries, 1/2 cup currant jelly, 2 teaspoons cornstarch, 1 tablespoon cold water, 1 quart vanilla ice cream, 4 large freestone peaches (pared, pitted and halved).

Mix raspberries and jelly in a saucepan; bring to a boil. Blend cornstarch and water; add to raspberry mixture and cook, stirring constantly, until slightly thickened and clear.

Strain through fine sieve to remove seeds; cool. At serving time arrange peach halves on scoops of ice cream and add raspberry sauce. Makes 8 servings.

"Prices Effective In Salem, Columbiana and Lisbon Stores"

Breads High On Food List

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Food and Markets Editor

Although American families are eating less bread than in the days of our grandmothers, it is still an important food. Furthermore, to many millions of people it is "The staff of life."

Enriched bread is good bread—

a fine source of thiamine and adds many other nutrients to a balanced diet. To many people bread is a gastronomic symbol of security and they feel emotionally insecure without it. Students of the eating habits of men in the armed services report that no matter how much other food the boys are served, they demand lots of bread and protest when there is not enough of it.

To Americans of foreign ancestry, breads of their parents' national origin are still an essential part of their daily meals. These foreign type breads are associated with memories of family security.

Hot biscuits and rolls are an expected part of a good meal in many sections of the country. And the fragrant memory of homemade loaves baking in the kitchen oven can put almost any grown man and woman into a nostalgic ecstasy.

Along with breakfast cereals, rice and macaroni products, good bread belongs in one of our four basic food groups, from which everyone must eat every day. Dr. Charles Glen King, director, Nutrition Foundation, and professor of chemistry at Columbia University, reminds homemakers: "Bread and rolls and biscuits, warm from the oven, are a boon to mankind. Some people have the idea that oven-warm breads are harmful. That's not so. They are just as good nutritionally and they often taste better," he adds.

Although some women still like to do their own baking, modern bakeries and food manufacturers have made this unnecessary. Most up-to-date bakeries carry an assortment of foreign breads as well as enriched American loaves. Supermarkets carry quick mixes for corn and oatmeal bread, for biscuits and pancakes, ready-to-bake loaves and rolls that need only a few minutes in the oven, tubes of refrigerated ready-to-bake biscuits and twists in a large assortment, and even canned breads.

Even though today's bakeries and supermarkets are making the drudgery of home baking unnecessary, the 100-year-old tradition of yeast baking contests held annually at 1500 state and county fairs is still going strong.

Here is a prize-winning recipe from Mrs. Barbara Ann Brannan, Tuscamari, N.M., at the New Mexico State Fair:

Barbara's Coffee Bread
(Makes 2 Loaves)

One-half cup milk, 1/4 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup shortening, 1 package active dry yeast, 2 1/2 cups sifted flour, 1/4 cup warm, not hot, water, 2 eggs, 1 egg yolk, 1 egg white, slightly beaten, 2 tablespoons sesame seeds.

Scald milk. Add sugar, salt and shortening; stir to dissolve. Pour into large mixing bowl and cool to lukewarm. Dissolve yeast in warm, not hot, water. Stir dissolved yeast into batter. Add eggs and egg yolk; beat well. Stir in remaining flour; then turn out onto floured board and knead until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl. Brush top with softened shortening. Cover. Let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Punch down. Divide dough into 2 balls. Roll each ball of dough into a rectangle 10 inches long. Cut each into three 10-inch strips. Braid 3 strips together. Seal the strips at each end. Place on a greased baking sheet. Repeat with remaining strips. Brush tops with egg white. Sprinkle with sesame seeds. Cover. Let rise until doubled in bulk, about 30 minutes. Bake at 375 degrees F. for 25 minutes.

The Doctor Says

By DR. H. T. HYMAN

Nips for Baby Matter of Personal Discretion

Q—Sometimes, when taking a mixed drink, my daughter-in-law lets her 18-month-old baby have a few sips. Can't this amount of alcohol have a bad effect on a child so young?

A—Although I believe your daughter-in-law is ill-advised to introduce her baby to cocktails at this early age, I cannot in good faith state that this small amount of alcohol will exert any bad effects on the youngster's health.

As a matter of fact, the alcoholic content of most cocktails, especially if diluted with ice, is no higher than that of some approved medicinal fluids such as tonics, cough mixtures, vitamin preparations, blood builders (hematinics) and appetizers.

You will note that my comment applies only to the health of the child.

I am not competent to make a judgment as to the effects on character development and the like, although I would direct attention to the fact that, in days gone by, the crying baby was often given a rag soaked in whisky or brandy for a soothing effect.

I know of no studies that indicated later harmful effects from this practice.

Q—My wife and I have lost three children as the result of cystic fibrosis. Recently we read of a new drug that cures this terrible disease. As we hope to have more children, I would appreciate information about the drug.

A—I believe you are referring to a new and improved extract prepared from pancreatic glands (sweetbreads). It is sold as Cotazym and comes in pill form.

However, neither this nor any other drug has a curative effect in cystic fibrosis. But, with skillful care, using diet and antibiotics, enormous strides are being taken in the control of this complex disorder.

For detailed information, write the director of the National Institute of Arthritis and Metabolic Diseases, at the Clinical Center of the National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, Maryland.

You may be interested to know, too, that the Institute is presently considering for admission any adult or child suspected of having cystic fibrosis. The request for admission must be made by your physician in writing or by phone.

The telephone number is Oliver 6-4000 Extension 4891. There are, of course, no charges to the patient for services rendered as a necessary part of participation in an investigational project.

Some time ago, several hundred of my readers located for me a quotation from the "Vision of Sir Launfal" that I was unable to find. Here's another for my literary friends:

"A cup of cold water given to one of Earth's thirsty ones shall reach beyond the stars and touch the lips of Him who said upon the Cross 'I thirst.'"

Does anyone know the source of this one?

Blueberry Loaf

2 cups sifted flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon baking soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 3/4 cup sugar, 1 cup blueberries, 1 egg, 1 tablespoon grated orange rind, 3/4 cup orange juice.

Sift together the flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt and sugar. Add blueberries. Beat egg until thick; add orange rind; stir in orange juice; add to dry ingredients plus blueberries; mix lightly. Turn into greased loaf pan (8 1/2 by 4 1/2 by 2 1/2 inches).

Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven about 50 minutes or until tester inserted in center comes out clean. Turn out on wire rack and cool. Store in tightly covered container several hours or overnight before slicing.

Cooked Corn Slaw

3/4 cup sugar, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 3/4 cup cider vinegar, 1 quart coarsely shredded green cabbage (packed down), 1 to 2 cups corn kernels (cut from cooked leftover corn on the cob), 1 green or red pepper (cut in thin strips or diced), 1/4 teaspoon tabasco.

In a large saucepan stir together the sugar, salt and vinegar over low heat until sugar dissolves; bring to a boil. Add cabbage, corn and green pepper. Stir and cook over moderate heat for 4 minutes.

Stir in tabasco. Chill overnight in covered container to allow the flavors to develop. Drain before serving. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

County Farmers to Elect ASC Committee Members

Columbiana County farmers will take part in the election of local community Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation committees in the next few weeks.

Clifford Shaw, county ASC Committee chairman, said about 3,300 farmers in the county are eligible to vote.

Ballots will be mailed out by Aug. 25, with Sept. 5 established at the date by which ballots should be returned. The counting of the ballots has been set for Sept. 8.

The ASC committees to be elected each consists of three regular members and two alternates. The chairman and vice chairman of the elected committee will serve as delegate and alternate delegate to the county convention where the county ASC committee will be chosen.

Any person may vote in the community election who is of legal voting age, who has an interest in a farm as an owner, tenant, or sharecropper, and who is taking part in one of the farm programs administered by the committee.

Also, any person not of legal voting age, but who is in charge of the supervision and conduct of the farming operations on an entire farm, is eligible to vote. In the case of joint ownership by two or more individuals, each is a eligible voter.

There are some limitations on voting. Each voter is entitled to only one vote on any one ballot. If a voter has an interest in a farm, or farms in more than one community in a county, he or she may select the community in which he or she wishes to vote, but the vote may be cast in only one community of the county.

Sheet Metal Worker Exam Announced

The United States Civil Service Commission today announced an examination for the position of aircraft sheet metal worker, W-10. The salary for this position is $2.79 per hour and the positions are with the 75th Troop Carrier Squadron (Reserve) at the Youngstown Municipal Airport.

No written test will be given. Applicants will be rated on the basis of their experience.

Information with instructions on how to apply may be obtained from the examiner in charge or information representative at the post office; executive secretary, board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, 75th Troop Carrier Squadron (Reserve), Youngstown Municipal Airport, or the Sixth U.S. Civil Service Region, Post Office and Courthouse Building, Cincinnati 2.

Applications will be accepted until Aug. 31.

DECKS AWASH — The HMS Hermes, one of Britain's newest aircraft carriers, presents an odd sight on maneuvers in the English Channel. The 27,800-ton vessel was using a spray system that cleans exterior surface of radioactive fallout which could be encountered on the fringe of nuclear explosions.

Lisbon Social

The Past Presidents Parley of John Welsh Post, American Legion Auxiliary, held its annual picnic on the lawn of the home of Mrs. Albert Webber of W. Maple St. Monday. Ten were present for supper served at 6:30.

Mrs. Byron Griffith, president, conducted a short business session, and the evening was spent socially.

The group planned to go to Shenango Inn at Sharon, Pa. for dinner for their next meeting Sept. 18.

Mrs. James Babb of N. Jefferson St. was hostess Monday night to associates of the Victory Club at her home. Mrs. Lodge Thorne was a guest.

500 was the diversion, and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Florence Stacey and Mrs. Virginia Williams.

Mrs. Babb will again receive the club for its next meeting Aug. 28.

Mrs. Roy Patterson of E. Pine St. was honored Monday evening by associates of the Young Women's Bible Class of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Patterson, a recent bride, was presented a gift of glassware.

Dinner was enjoyed at Timberlans in Salem and a social evening followed.

The group will dispense with the September meeting but will meet next in October.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul T. Gerrard and daughter, Ruth Ann, of E. Chestnut St., have returned home from a vacation trip through the Finger Lakes Region in New York State.

Mrs. Dallas Hepburn of E. High St. has as her guest this week, her sister, Mrs. H. O. Coleman of Marion.

Senate Seeks To Alter JFK Aid Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's five-year foreign development loan program, altered but intact, today runs into another Senate effort to change it.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., wants to add an anti-usury amendment to the program.

Williams asked the Senate to adopt a proposal under which money made available by the United States—at rates as low as one per cent, and even interest-free—could not be loaned at rates higher than eight per cent.

The Senate turned to consideration of Williams' proposal after an attempt to cut Kennedy's requested borrowing authority for the five-year loan program from $8.8 billion to $7.3 billion lost on a 46-46 tie vote.

This vote was still subject to a motion to reconsider. But the Senate's Democratic leaders said they were confident they would pick up additional support if there is another vote on the amendment.

Son. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., floor manager of the bill, for example, was absent from the Chamber when the tie vote was taken.

The amendment, sponsored by Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, would have slashed the development loan requests by $287 million this year and by $300 million for each of the succeeding four years.

But the Senate did vote, 52 to 44, to give Congress a veto power over any loan over $5 million.

Offered by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Republican leader, and accepted by Fulbright, the amendment would give four congressional committees a 30-day advance look at any proposed loan above that amount.

Tri-County Players To Meet Tonight

Committees for the forthcoming production will be named when the Tri-County Players meet tonight at 8 at the playhouse in Sebring. Persons with previous experience in set construction, make-up or scenic design are especially urged to attend.

The first rehearsal of "Tender Trap," to be presented Sept. 22, 23 and 24, was held Monday night with Donald Tamburro directing. The final two female parts were cast: Nancy Williams of Alliance as Poppy, one of the many girlfriends of Charlie Reeder, and Patricia Neely of Sebring as Jessica, a southern girl friend of Charlie Reeder's.

Miss Williams is a 1958 graduate of Alliance High School where she was elected Chronical Queen. She was also one of the princesses in the Carnation City Festival in Alliance recently. Miss Neely was a member of the cast of "The Man Who Came to Dinner," and was a member of the production crew for "Love Me Long."

Annetta Citino of Salem was named in charge of scenic designs and programs. Harry Wilson, at Archie Citino's Barber Shop and the Daniel Smith Jewelry Store here and at Isaly's available from the secretary, Mrs. Dairy in Leetonia.
